Mick Inkpen's much-loved Kipper takes up residence at Watermans this Christmas in Kipper's Snowy Day

Woof! Cute and cuddly and loved by generations of children, Kipper is the star of the show at Watermans this Christmas, in Kipper's Snowy Day. A brand new show by inventive company Slot Machine, it brings together gorgeous giant animal puppets with world-class puppeteers, and original songs and dance.

It's snowing, and Kipper is VERY excited! Kipper and his friend Tiger go on an adventure in the snow – but can they find their way home? This magical and warm hearted world of puppets, music and mischief will charm children and adults alike.

There's a chance to meet the characters afterwards and have your photo taken. And why not enter the art competition which will be judged by author of Kipper's Snowy Day, Mick Inkpen himself! See website for details.
